

Get a Literary Agent and Get Published!

March 21, 2009 | 9 am to 3 pm | $75

Waimea Community Education

65-1184 Mamalahoa Hwy | Kamuela, HI 96743

Limited
Space
Register
Now!

Are you ready to find an agent and publish your book? Whether you've just thought of a book idea or already have a stack of rejection letters, now is the time to find a literary agent and catapult your book to publishing success!

Here's what you'll learn:

- What literary agents really look for in a client
- How to create a winning query package/book proposal
- How to target the right literary agents and develop a surefire submission strategy

With the downturn in the economy, literary agents and publishing houses are more discriminating than ever. Don't get lost in the slush pile!

If you've ever dreamed of seeing your book on the shelves, you won't want to miss this in this information-packed class. For fiction and nonfiction authors. To register, please call Waimea Community Education at 885-1539.

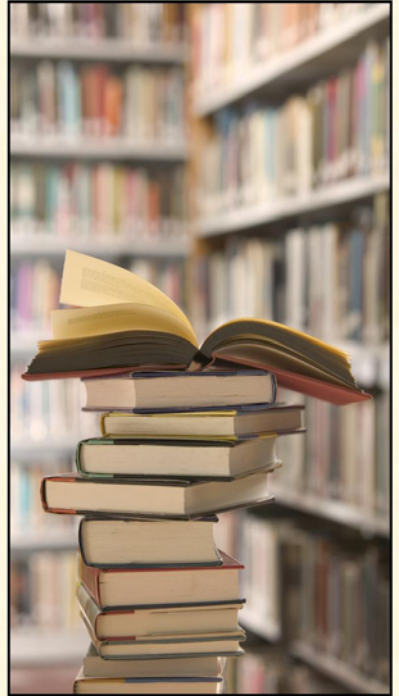

"Great class!"

"Well organized, a lot of information and practical experience in one afternoon."

"All excellent...it gave me the direction I needed."

"I learned which steps to take towards my dream. Thank you!"

miaking.com | waimeaeducation.com

National bestselling author Darien Gee writes contemporary women's fiction under the pen name Mia King. Her most recent novel, Sweet Life (Berkley/Penguin), is a Doubleday, Literary Guild, and Book of the Month Club featured pick. Darien has served on the boards of ZYZZYVA, a prominent literary journal, and the San Francisco Public Library. She is represented by two prominent New York literary agencies.